

Polyseal

Closed Cell Foam

A great option for a wide range of applications. Polyseal closed cell SPF adds structural stability, has the highest R-value/ inch of any material on the market, and is near impermeable to indirect water infiltration. Often used in smaller wall/roof cavities where the space must be used for maximum energy efficiency.

