

Polyseal

Void Filling

Structural geo-foam can be used to fill and secure voids that have developed beneath weight-bearing structures.

This fast-expanding material exerts upward pressure to restore and maintain long-term stability, while adding minimal weight to the structure—unlike many other options on the market.

